Alderman Glass, Adams and Ward were appointed as a committee Tuesday night to visit the town meeting of Arenda Friday afternoon and make some arrangement for the upkeep of the state roads, which were brought into the city this spring when the boundaries were extended. These roads take in a stretch on Grover avenue, and the road running east and west, just to the south of the Woodbine farm. If proper care is given the repair of these roads the state pays a portion of the expense of repair, amounting to about four per cent of the cost of construction.

ENLARGE PLACE

DeLuxe Ice Cream Parlor and Confectionery has been Enlarged

The ice cream parlor and confectionery of the De Luxe Candy company on South State street, has been enlarged and now has almost twice the seating capacity that it formerly had.

A large addition was added to the back end of the building and the kitchens and work rooms of the place were moved into this. The back wall of the ice cream parlor was moved back, new wall glasses put in place, new tables and chairs installed, and the walls painted.

A dozen new tables were put in, giving room for nearly a half hundred more people at one time.

The new addition to this place gives Alma one of the finest ice cream parlors and candy stores to be found in this section of the state.

TAKEN HERE

Al. Yager is Being Held for Federal Officers.

Al. Yager was picked up here Tuesday afternoon by Chief of Police Oscar Vibber and is being held for federal officers, and it is expected that a charge of having stolen articles in interstate commerce will be lodged against him.

As near as can be learned Yager is alleged to have stolen a number of pairs of shoes, which had been consigned to the Economy shoe store of this city, while these articles were in transit over the Pere Marquette railroad from other states.

When Yager was picked up by Chief of Police Vibber his place was searched and it is said that a number of pairs of shoes were found by the officers.

Yager is said to have told the officers that the property was stolen by someone, whom he did not know, and that the stolen articles were left at his place.

Yager was taken to the county jail at Ithaca by the local officers where he is waiting the arrival of federal officers, who will place a charge against him, and remove him to other quarters.

LEAVES FOR TIME

Dr. Slayter Will Take Post Graduate Course at Kirksville.

Dr. E. G. Slayter, who has been practicing with great success in this city for the past four or five years, is leaving Alma within a few days for Kirksville, Mo., where he will take a postgraduate course. Part of this course will consist of work in surgery.

During the time that Dr. Slayter has been in Alma he has gained a wide circle of friends, and has enjoyed an enviable practice, which he assures the Record will be well taken care of while he is taking his post graduate course at Kirksville.

Dr. F. F. Marsulles, who has been practicing in Missouri for some time, has been secured by Dr. Slayter to take charge of his offices and practice here while he is gone. He enjoys a good reputation and should be able to handle the practice in good shape.

OVID FRIDAY

High School Gets Team to Replace Ithaca High School.

Just before going to press it was learned that the high school football team had secured a game with Ovid high school for Friday afternoon to replace the Ithaca game which was postponed.

The Ovid team is considered to be a good one and should furnish the orange and black team with plenty of opposition for an opening game. The game will be called about 3:30 p. m., it is expected.

Coach Kimball felt that it was necessary to have a game this week because of the hard game which the locals have next week with Cadillac, which is expected to be one of the hardest on the local card this year. A game before this one will do much to round the Alma team into shape.

TWO KILLED

Racing Machine Went Through Fence at Issabella Fair.

Andrew Williams, an Indian, and Henry G. Bacon, an old soldier and a pioneer of Issabella county, were killed Saturday at the fair grounds at Mt. Pleasant, when an automobile went through a fence on which the men sat.

The car was driven by J. W. Smith, and he was tuning it up just before the races started, when the accident happened. It seems that he was forced to turn out for a large iron roller, which was being used to smooth down the track for the events, when the car skidded and was sent crashing against the fence, where the two men were watching the events.

Williams was instantly killed and Bacon died a few hours after the crash. Several thousand people, attracted by the races, saw the accident.

We establish a "bond of trust" between this store and every man who wears Fitform, Steinblock, or Styleplus clothes.

Coming into this store is the road leading to better looking clothes and greater clothes satisfaction. No clothing store any where in the world will sell you better clothes, just the kind you want to wear, than we can under the Fitform, Steinblock or Styleplus labels.

Not only do we warrant the lines of the coat to be graceful and according to the best style, but the trousers also have the right lines and in their particular fit are not to be classed with just ordinary clothing.

The vest always has little particulars in style that conform to the good looks of the coat and trousers.

Every suit under these labels measures up to the standard of the man who wears it and the good appearance of style is there until the suit is worn out.
